

STRATEGY CONSULTING

STUDENT
REGISTRATION

NEAL BATRA '97

Partner, Deloitte

Neal is a New York-based Partner focused on healthcare strategy. He serves clients across the healthcare ecosystem on strategy challenges related to business model and operating model transformation. Neal is a co-author of Deloitte's Future of Health (2040) point-of-view, which outlines the breakdown of the current industry structure and the emergence of a new healthcare ecosystem oriented around next-gen value drivers. He leads the market-facing practice that helps clients apply the FoH frames and concepts to navigate an increasingly complex industry landscape. Neal holds his MBA from London Business School and a BBA from the College of William & Mary. He lives in New York City.

KLAUDIA KASZTELANIEC '09'

Partner, McKinsey & Co

Klaudia Kasztelaniec is an Engagement Manager at McKinsey & Company. In her role, she advises large private companies across a range of industries on sales and marketing related topics. Ms. Kasztelaniec earned her BA from William & Mary with majors in Economics and Finance, and her MBA from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business. She was a member of the varsity tennis team while at William & Mary.

ANDREY DEAN MBA '17

EY Advisory Services

Andrey is a seasoned information technology and cybersecurity practitioner. He currently employed by Ernst & Young and is a member of the Program Risk and IT transformation practice. Andrey is experienced in advising Fortune 500 executives on their complex program initiatives and large capital projects. He has over 15 years of experience in implementing Department of Defense and commercial IT programs globally. Andrey has also served in the Biometric and Smart Card industry, Government Intelligence Agencies, and British Ministry of Defense. Before joining Ernst & Young, he served his country as a United States Marine and has completed multiple deployments to Afghanistan and Iraq. Andrey is a 2017 graduate of the William and Mary Executive MBA program, where he served as the class leader. He received a bachelor of science in computer science from Christopher Newport University. He currently serves on the Christopher Newport Peninsula Alumni Chapter board of directors. Andrey also serves as a member of the Greenwood Christian Academy School Board.