

ALTERNATIVE ASSETS

STUDENT REGISTRATION

CONOR KEEVEY '17

Associate, The Carlyle Group

Conor Keevey is an associate in Carlyle's Opportunistic Credit Fund, a position he has held since 2019. Conor spends a majority of his time evaluating and structuring credit, equity, and structured hybrid investments as an industry generalist. Prior to joining Carlyle, Conor was an analyst at J.P. Morgan in the investment banking division. Conor graduated from William & Mary in 2017 with a B.B.A. in Finance, concentration in accounting, and a minor in mathematics.

ELLEN KIRK JAROSINSKI '18

Business Development Analyst, Access Holdings

Oasis Marinas offers marina management services support all aspects of the marina, including facilities management and maintenance, boat dock repair and remodeling, marine construction, provision stores, fuel docks and the associated contracts with the vendors, restaurants and other business services. Oasis' marina owners also benefit from a state-of-the-art technology and inventory management system, designed to increase revenues and provide a seamless business experience.

ALTERNATIVE ASSETS

STUDENT
REGISTRATION

CHRISTIAN CARGILL '18

Associate, Centerbridge Partners

Christian joined Centerbridge in 2020. Centerbridge brings together experience across investment disciplines—from private equity to credit and related strategies—in an effort to find the most attractive opportunities for investors and business partners. Prior to joining Centerbridge, Christian was an Investment Banking Analyst in the Media and Communications Group at J.P. Morgan.