

Private Equity & Alternative Investments

Manny Enriquez-Hesles '18

Vice President
Liberty Strategic Capital

Manny Enriquez-Hesles is a Vice President at Liberty Strategic Capital where he focuses on investments across technology, fintech and financials, and sports, media and entertainment. Prior to joining Liberty, Mr. Enriquez-Hesles was an Associate at Arlington Capital Partners, where he focused on buyout opportunities. Prior to Arlington, Mr. Enriquez-Hesles was an Analyst at J.P. Morgan in its technology investment banking group where he advised clients on a variety of M&A and capital markets transactions. Mr. Enriquez-Hesles holds a BBA in Finance from The College of William & Mary.

Brandon Wolfe '07

Co-Founder/Partner
Jordan Partners

Brandon Wolfe is Co-Founder / Managing Partner at Jordan Partners. Prior to forming Jordan, he invested for six years at Tiger Management, the family office of Julian Robertson, in New York. At Tiger Management, Brandon researched public stocks and private companies. Before Tiger Management, Brandon invested at Jet Capital Investors and Cascabel Management and taught middle school math via Teach For America. Raised in Covington, Virginia, he graduated Phi Beta Kappa with a bachelor's degree in History from the College of William & Mary and earned a JD from Stanford Law School and an MBA from the Stanford Graduate School of Business.

Matt Clark '12

Vice President

Incline Equity Partners

Matt Clark is an investment professional with Incline Equity Partners, a middle market private equity firm investing in distribution, business services and manufacturing companies. In this role, he is responsible for executing and monitoring investments. Matt previously held private equity roles with HCI Equity Partners and KKR as well as worked in operating roles at multiple private equity backed businesses. He started his career in the investment banking division at Deutsche Bank. He graduated from William & Mary with a BBA in finance and the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania with an MBA in management.

Tiffany Theriault '10

Managing Director

Apollo Global Management

Tiffany Theriault joined Apollo Global Management in 2021 where she is a Managing Director on the real estate credit team. She is responsible for originating and structuring commercial real estate mortgage and mezzanine loans on behalf of Apollo's permanent capital balance sheets and managed funds. Prior to joining Apollo, Tiffany spent 10 years at Goldman Sachs in the Real Estate Financing Group where she was the co-head of large loan originations. Tiffany serves on the board of directors of Creative Art Works, a non-profit focused on providing youth art programs to underserved communities in New York City. Tiffany graduated summa cum laude from the College of William & Mary with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance and serves as the course co-lead for Intro to Commercial Real Estate Finance at the College of William & Mary.

Aaron Hurwitz '08

Principal The Carlyle Group

Aaron Hurwitz is a Principal at The Carlyle Group within the US Buyout Fund, focused on buyouts and growth equity investments in the aerospace, defense and government services sectors. He is based in Carlyle's Washington, DC office and lives in McLean, VA. Mr. Hurwitz has been a key contributor to a number of Carlyle's investments, and currently serves as a director on the boards of Loc Performance, Armada (IMIA), and Global Jet Capital. Mr. Hurwitz is also actively involved with Carlyle's investment in StandardAero. Prior Carlyle portfolio company leadership includes Titan Acquisition Holdings and PrimeFlight Aviation Services. Prior to joining Carlyle, Mr. Hurwitz worked in private equity at CCMP Capital and Veritas Capital, where he evaluated and executed investments across a broad range of industrial, health care, and A&D sub sectors. Prior to that, Mr. Hurwitz worked in investment banking in the industrials and transportation group at Deutsche Bank. Mr. Hurwitz received an MBA with honors from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania and a BBA with honors from the College of William and Mary.

Ryan Bolowsky '16

Vice President iCON Infrastructure

Ryan Bolowsky is a Vice President on the investment team at iCON Infrastructure, an infrastructure private equity firm focused on middle-market investments across North America and Europe. At iCON, Ryan is primarily responsible for originating, executing and overseeing investments across iCON's funds, with a focus on opportunities within the environmental infrastructure sector. Prior to joining iCON, Ryan worked at Macquarie Asset Management (MAM) where he focused on investments on behalf of Macquarie's North American infrastructure funds as well as strategic acquisitions in the asset management space on behalf of MAM. Before Macquarie, Ryan held roles at Apollo Global Management and Houlihan Lokey where he started his career as an analyst in the firm's FIG investment banking group. Ryan holds a BBA in Finance from the College of William & Mary.